Cdr Thomas welcomed guests & Compatriot Tom Burnett read The Charge to the Camp

New Business:

Lt Cdr Tarrance introduced the guest speaker for the evening: Joe Long from the Confederate Relic Room in Columbia. Mr. Long discussed the founding, & mission of the Relic Room since its founding in 1869 by widows & wives of Confederate Veterans. He also gave a presentation explaining the strong emphasis of religion throughout the South, & how it affected post war relationships & efforts of reconciliation. .

Brigade Commander Joe Willis presented a 2nd Place ribbon to the Camp as recognition of the efforts in Cemetery Clean-up project & specifically recognized Compatriots Robert de Treville & Jack Baughn for their efforts. He also announced that assistance was needed for people to serve on various SC Division Committees. Interested people should contact Cdr Willis at : confederatejoe@gmail.com

* Commander Thomas spoke to the Camp re "National Recruitment Month" throughout the SCV & stressed the importance to enlist new members.

* Commander Thomas also announced the auction of the silver Sesquicentennial Coin - the coin has a value of $150.00

* As follow up to prior months topic, it was determined, based on Camp feedback, that a Confederate Ball would not be held this year, & that a questionnaire would be sent to Camp members to survey their interests.

* Compatriot Couser challenged the Camp to make a collective effort to notably mark the importance of the Sesquicentennial. Mr Couser accepted leadership of these events & it was agreed by the Camp to pursue the 2014 SC Division Convention as the vehicle to highlight these events. A committee will be formed asap.

* Compatriot Jack Mayer requested Camp funds to purchase 12 dozen Confederate Flags to be placed on graves for Confederate Memorial Day. A motion was offered, seconded, & passed. Estimated price is $150.00.

* Penny Tarrance from the UDC spoke re the upcoming Heritage Society Luncheon - all Camp members are invited & please contact Penny if you do not receive your invitation. Also, that the deadline is nearing for the UDC Scholarship program.

* Commander Thomas reminded the Camp of the National Confederate Memorial Day Service being held 4/14 at Stone Mountain, GA.

* It was also announced that volunteers as period re-enactors were needed for the upcoming St Helena Tour of Homes

* Past Commander Jody Henson reminded the Camp of Confederate Memorial Day Services being held at the National Cemetery Beaufort, on Thursday, May 10th, at 7:00 pm. The speaker for the event is Randy Burbage, past Division Commander.
